

Question 1:

What is the most significant factor affecting trust in the government and the public service?

Question 2:

How can leaders in the public service preserve trust in government?

Question 3:

What attribute is most needed in the public service to build greater trust with the community?

